Fishing Magician

Dave Baughman

Reach Dave @ www.FishingMagician.com or FishBoy@nwi.net "The Outdoor Insider"

Can you believe it's August already? I had a long list of places I wanted to fish this summer, and there are still many that I haven't checked off. I had better get in gear and get out on the water. Before you know it, fall will be here!

I haven't been to Potholes Reservoir for months, and I wanted to know if it would be worth a trip down there. So, I sent a text to Shelby Ross, of Ross Outdoor Adventures, and asked him how the walleye bite was there now. Whom ever came up with the phrase "a picture is worth a thousand words" got that right in this case. He just sent me a photo of a recent trip, showing a family of four with a stringer of fish that was amazing. On the stringer was almost a dozen very nice walleye, over 20 really good-sized crappie, some big bluegill and even a whopper perch. He didn't have to say a word. This photo just said FUN, and lots of good eats. I am going to plan a trip to Potholes as soon as I can. We always pick up some big bluegill and some crappie when we are trolling for walleye, and if we want to get serious we look for one of the habitat boxes that are scattered throughout the reservoir. I think there is even a map that shows their locations. I bet the folks at the Mar Don tackle shop can tell you where to get one. We have found several boxes while trolling for walleye. When we do we switch to spinning rods with a hook, sinker and a chunk of worm and cast near them. What a blast!

My wife and I eat a lot of fish, and I often have enough in the freezer to give to family and neighbors. There are a couple of species that we tend to horde, because we like to eat them so much. One is walleye and the other is kokanee. I rarely go after trout anymore, because kokanee are so much better eating, and there are several lakes where they are abundant. Very close to our home in Leavenworth is Fish Lake, which added kokanee to the lake just a few years ago. You can usually count on catching kokanee on Lake Chelan, and just over the hill from Manson is Wapato Lake, which can produce some of the biggest kokanee in the region. Known for abundant numbers of smaller kokanee is Deep Lake, north of Soap Lake, above Park Lake. In the Spokane area there are several lakes that offer kokanee fishing. Badger Lake is probably the most popular, but anglers can also catch kokanee at Loon Lake and Clear Lake. East of Spokane in Idaho is Lake Coeur d' Alene where kokanee are especially large this season and nearby Hayden Lake produces big kokanee as well.

I checked in with a couple of guide buddies to see what they were up to this summer. Nate Stully of Stully's Guide Service said he was busy catching kokanee on Lake Chelan and catch and release sturgeon fishing on the Columbia River. Kevin Witte, of Up River Guide Service, said that he was still getting walleye in the Kettle Falls area on Lake Roosevelt. He goes when the smoke clears. It should be a pretty good year for walleye anglers on the big reservoir. Since 2002, the co-managers have conducted Fall Walleye Index Netting (FWIN) to monitor the walleye population. Monitoring enables managers to track the abundance, age, growth, condition, sex ratio, and age at maturity. WDFW reports that the walleye fishery has remained stable and resilient over time. Abundance of walleye decreased slightly in 2024 but was above the 20-year average. There were two large year classes detected for the 2025 fishery: age-2 fish that will be 12-14 inches and age-4 fish that will be 16-18 inches. Abundance of these age-4 fish was a record over the 23-year dataset, so anglers can expect better fishing for quality-size walleye than past years.

I am often asked where to take kids so they can catch fish easily and not get bored. There are many lakes throughout the region that offer good fishing for perch. Fishing for perch is not complicated. It just takes a hook and sinker and a piece nightcrawler to catch them. Sometimes you don't even need a rod. My Dad took a bunch of us kids perch fishing when we were all about six to eight years old. He rented a boat at a local lake and when he was anchored, handed each of us a reel. Just a reel. He had a hook and sinker on the line and after baiting the hook lowered each line down to the bottom. He told us to jerk when something pulled on the line and bring it in hand over hand. He didn't want a boat load of kids waving rods around, trying to cast, or playing swords when they didn't get a bite right away. It worked great. He was busy unhooking perch and baiting the hooks and we wound up with a basket full of fat perch. He paid a penny a piece to get them filleted—what a deal! This week's photo is of a happy youngster, Mabel Jima, with a nice perch.

I want to thank all of you that have subscribed to the FishingMagician.com Facebook page. It may not seem like much, but it really helps keep me on the road and afloat to do the reports that I do. You will soon be seeing information about fishing opportunities in north Idaho, in addition to the areas that I have been covering for years. All of this costs. The time and travel, fuel and licenses, etc. I also wanted to let you know that I have recently produced a series of videos that include reviews of some of my favorite products. These will be available to subscribers to the FishingMagician.com Facebook page. Things that I personally use when I am fishing for the different species available to us in this region. There are some tips and tricks that I share with subscribers as well. If you like what I do and want to learn more about what I use to catch fish and the products that I personally prefer, just click on the Subscriber button on my page. Thanks in advance!

Great N.W. Gathering moves to CDA Casino

WORLEY, Idaho — The 4th Annual Great Northwest Gathering car show carries on, but in a new location for the Aug. 7-8 event.

Staged previously at the Spokane Fair and Expo Center, event promoter Brian Anderson decided the shift to the Idaho venue was necessary.

"(It's a) nice change of venue and they want me there," Anderson, who also produces the Spokane Speed and Custom Show in the spring wrote in an email.

Entries are coming from all over the Northwest, Canada and California with 400-plus already registered through late July.

Live music will also be present each day and include Sammy Eubanks Friday night.

Awards will be presented at 5 p.m. Saturday with a parking lot cruise to follow after awards. Vehicle entries can still register and pay Friday or Saturday morning at greatnwgathering.com.

Andrew Tate defends Seafair title
Sets new course record at Apollo Mechanical Cup

From H1 media

SEATTLE (Aug. 2, 2026) — Andrew Tate and the U-1 Miss BWR Racing successfully defended their Seafair title Sunday afternoon, capturing the Apollo Mechanical Cup for the second consecutive year after an exciting battle with Jimmy Shane and the U-27 Miss Apollo. The two championship contenders raced side-by-side for much of the final, thrilling the thousands of fans lining the shores of Lake Washington before Tate pulled away to secure another prestigious Seattle victory.

In the process, Tate also established a new Seafair final heat course record, averaging 143.423 mph, eclipsing the previous mark of 141.880 mph, set by John Theoret in the Miss Beacon Plumbing in 2006.

Behind the leaders, Dylan Runne delivered one of the strongest performances of his H1 Unlimited career, bringing the U-40 Bucket List Racing home in third to earn the team's first podium finish of the 2026 season. Runne held off a hard-charging Jamie Nilsen in the U-11 FLAV-R-PAC, whose fourth-place finish capped another impressive weekend. Nilsen and his team continued to exceed expectations, showcasing the speed and consistency that have quickly established them as one of the rising contenders on the circuit.

With his second consecutive victory at Seafair, Tate strengthens his position in the National High Points Championship as H1 Unlimited now turns its attention to the final race of the season, the Bayfair Cup in San Diego, September 18-20.

Cress captures South Sound NWSLM race

From NWSLM Media & NW Motorsports News Services

Tenino, Wash. (Aug. 1, 2026) – Alan Cress continued his recent success at South Sound Speedway (WA) Saturday night, claiming a hard-fought victory in the "Weatherguard Roofing – Kennedy Classic 200" before a packed grandstand.

Cress had to come from the back twice to earn the victory in Round #3 of the Northwest Super Late Model Series presented by Knottical Marine, taking home $8.000 for his effort. Cress in now the fifth driver to score multiple wins in the traditional "South Sound / Miller 200" event at the 3/8-mile oval. It is a feat he was excited to duplicate at his home track.

"It is awesome," Cress said from Victory Circle. "Not very many people have done it twice."

Cress, from Stayton, Oregon took the lead for the final time on lap 158, racing from third to the lead on the outside. He led Brandon Carlson and Dave Garber across the line as the checkered flag waved.

The next event for the Northwest Super Late Model Series will be the traditional "Neal Newberry 125" at the Wenatchee Valley Super-Oval on August 29.
